

TBA BLOODSTOCK CONFERENCE 2024
Tuesday 25th June at Tattersalls, Newmarket

9.00 – 9.30	Arrival – registration with refreshments
9.30 – 9.50	Introduction - Lydia Hislop Welcome - Philip Newton – Chairman, Thoroughbred Breeders' Association
Session 1 – The Horse
9.50 – 10.20	Keynote Speech Richard Phillips – Racehorse Trainer, Adlestrop Stables
10.20 – 10.50	Shared principles: Pulling together to enhance standards of animal welfare in sport Prof. Madeleine Campbell - Greyhound Board of Great Britain
10.50 – 11.00	Audience Q & A
11.00 – 11.15	Comfort break
11.15 – 11.45	Why aftercare can't be an afterthought – panel discussion Louise Robson, Dr Roly Owers OBE, Philippa Gilmore, Dr Ian Cameron
11.45 – 12.10	Audience Q & A
12.10 – 12.30	Meet Quadrille, re-trained racehorse owned by HM King Charles III
12.15 – 13.15	Lunch, networking and visit marketplace
Session 2 - People
13.15 – 13.55	Understanding influencers of equine behaviour and enhancing human and horse interactions Dr Gemma Pearson - RCVS Specialist in Veterinary Behavioural Medicine (Equine)
13.55 – 14.15	The Winning Team: A workforce strategy for the racing and breeding industry Lucy Attwood – Programme Director, HIPB
14.15 – 14:45	Skills for stud work - panel discussion Dr Gemma Pearson, Lucy Attwood, Eileen Harte, Joe Bradley, Adam Holland
	Audience Q & A
14.45 – 15.15	Afternoon tea
Session 3 - Business
15.15 – 15.35	Reducing the climate impact of British Stud Farms Sarah Wynn - Managing Director, ADAS Climate and Sustainability
15.35 – 16:05	The race to net zero Stephane Bazire - Head of Business Sustainability and Partnerships, Silverstone
16.05 – 16:15	Audience Q & A
16.15 – 17.00	International Breeding Strategies: Interventions and incentives Dr Kanichi Kusano, JRA, followed by panel discussion hosted by Lydia Hislop
	Audience Q & A
17.00	Close